

Rochester Precision Optics
Standard Terms and Conditions for Buyers
(RPO-TCB rev. 20190305b , effective March 5, 2019)

1. Terms and Conditions Applicable

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") shall apply to the sale by Rochester Precision Optics, LLC ("RPO" or "Seller") of any Goods or Services to buyer ("Buyer") as described on the face hereof, attached hereto, or in Related Agreement Documents (defined herein).

Any offer or quote made by Seller, any acceptance by Seller of any offer or purchase order by Buyer, and any contract formed by Buyer and Seller is expressly conditioned upon Buyer's agreement to these Terms and Conditions. A contract is formed only upon the express condition that Buyer assents to all terms herein and terms incorporated by reference, including terms that are consistent with, different from and additional to any terms in Buyer's offer or acceptance, if any; if Buyer does not assent, this document shall serve solely as an offer or counteroffer, and shall not cause or be deemed to cause any contract between the Parties to come into effect.

Except with respect to a Prior Agreement between the Parties (see Prior Agreement terms below), if any, Seller expressly objects to and rejects any additional, different, conflicting or inconsistent terms submitted by Buyer at any time, including previously and subsequently, whether in an order, acceptance, or otherwise, and notification of such objection and rejection is hereby given.

These Terms and Conditions do not supersede any effective and applicable confidentiality or nondisclosure agreements between Buyer and Seller. Buyer's failure to make written objection within five (5) days of receipt of these Terms and Conditions shall constitute Buyer's acceptance of these terms and conditions.

3. Prices and Shipping; Taxes; Payment Terms

(A) Buyer shall pay the purchase price set forth on the face of the attached order or other Related Document, including appropriate nominal handling charges. Pricing and shipping shall be FCA (Incoterms 2010) Seller's facility in W. Henrietta, New York, freight pre-paid to Buyer's destination, or in the case of international shipments, shall be CPT (Incoterms 2010) Buyer's destination, freight pre-paid.

(B) Any and all taxes or fees imposed by any federal, state, municipal, or other governmental authority applicable to the Goods, together with any freight, insurance, duties, tariffs, and brokerage charges, shall be added to the price and paid by Buyer, except where Buyer has provided a proper certificate of exemption therefrom. Buyer shall be responsible for the payment of such taxes and fees even if not added to the invoice price.

(C) Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Seller in writing, Buyer shall make full payment for Goods ordered: (i) within thirty (30) days of the date that Seller delivers Goods to the applicable carrier for shipment to Buyer; (ii) within thirty (30) days of the date of the mailing of Seller's invoice to Buyer; (iii) within thirty (30) days of the electronic, digital, facsimile, email or express courier delivery of Seller's invoice to Buyer; whichever is earlier. All prices and charges are denominated and shall be paid in United States currency.

(D) In the event of nonpayment or late payment of an invoice, Seller reserves the right, without incurring any liability or cost, and in addition to any other remedies to which Seller may be entitled: (i) to suspend deliveries and/or cancel any of its outstanding obligations; (ii) refuse any purchase orders placed by Buyer, or cancel or delay any pending shipments to Buyer; (iii) to declare all sums owed by Buyer to Seller immediately due and payable, notwithstanding any credit terms previously in effect; and (iv) to charge an interest fee of (a) 1.5% per month or (b) up to the maximum rate allowed by applicable law, whichever is lower, on all unpaid amounts calculated on a day-to-day basis until the actual date of full payment; and (v) if Seller chooses to continue making further sales or to extend other credit to Buyer, to do so on a C.O.D. or cash-in-advance basis.

(E) Seller reserves the right at any time to alter or suspend credit or to change any credit terms when, in its sole discretion, the financial condition of Buyer so warrants. In any such case, Seller may require cash payment, irrevocable letter of credit or additional security from Buyer before further production or shipment, may accelerate the date of any payment, and may suspend production, withhold any shipment, or cancel any further production in addition to any other rights or remedies it may have pursuant to applicable law. In the event of the bankruptcy or insolvency of Buyer or in the event any proceeding is brought by or against Buyer under bankruptcy or similar insolvency laws, Seller is entitled to cancel any order then outstanding, without liability whatsoever, and shall receive reimbursement for its cancellation charges as per Section 5 (Cancellations) hereof.

4. Shipment; Risk of Loss

(A) Seller will determine the shipping schedule after it receives all items and information necessary for the design, manufacture, and testing of the Goods.

(B) All shipment release schedules requested by Buyer for blanket purchase orders must be submitted in writing to Seller. Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts to meet the requested shipment schedule and will acknowledge the actual schedule in writing within ten (10) days of receipt of the shipment schedule request.

(C) In the event that a method of shipment other than set forth in Section 3(A) (Prices and Shipping) hereof is specified, the price shall be adjusted to reflect any increase or decrease to the extent that the cost of shipment is or will be included therein.

(D) Title and risk of loss to the Goods shall pass to Buyer according to the shipping terms provided in Section 3(A) (Prices and Shipping). Passage of title and/or risk of loss shall not be affected by other delivery terms, shipping instructions, or storage on Buyer's behalf by Seller at its facilities. Buyer shall obtain adequate insurance to cover the Goods from the time that risk of loss has passed from Seller to Buyer. Upon written notice to Buyer, Seller may elect to obtain insurance covering the Goods during shipping, and Buyer shall promptly reimburse Seller the cost thereof.

5. Orders Subject to Licenses; Cancellations; Requests for Schedule Changes

(A) Purchase orders, sales order acknowledgements, and other acceptance of order terms shall be subject to and conditional upon the Parties obtaining any necessary and applicable export licenses or other governmental agency authorization, if needed; agency denial of any application for such license or authorization shall be deemed to rescind, annul, void, cancel, or terminate such orders and all acceptance of such orders without cost or liability to either Party; agency terms attached to the granting of such license or authorization shall apply to the related purchase orders and acceptance of the transaction by the Parties.

(B) Once accepted by Seller, the order may be cancelled only upon the written consent of Seller. If Seller consents to such cancellation, Buyer shall pay to Seller, within thirty (30) days of being notified, cancellation fees and charges determined by Seller in accordance with the following;

(i) For catalog goods ("Standard Goods"): One hundred percent (100%) of any nonrecurring charges related to Buyer's order plus any materials, labor, and subcontract costs, including cancellation fees related to the cancelled units that is owed to Seller's suppliers and subcontractors, plus twenty-five percent (25%) of the cancelled order's sales price. The cancelled Goods and materials remain the property of Seller.

(ii) For build-to-print goods, goods designed for Buyer by Seller, or any other goods that are not Standard Goods ("Custom Goods"): Written notice of cancellation of any Goods scheduled for shipment must be given at least sixty (60) days prior to such scheduled shipment date, and as early as possible for any unscheduled or unreleased Goods. Cancellation charges shall include: (a) all non-recurring charges; (b) the contracted price for all Goods completed prior to such cancellation notice ("finished goods"); (c) an amount equal to the percentage completed of each of the remaining Goods units multiplied by the unit sales price for that Product ("work in progress" or "WIP"); (d) cancellation charges incurred by Seller for materials, components, and subcontracted items that Seller purchased prior to the cancellation date and that were reasonably necessary to complete the cancelled order; and (d) Seller's costs for materials, parts, components and other items that were reasonably necessary to complete the cancelled order ("materials"). Buyer is entitled to receive, upon Buyer's written request, all such finished Custom Goods, work in progress, and materials for which cancellation charges have been paid in full.

(C) Buyer-requested changes to the delivery schedule for Standard Goods are not permitted for Goods scheduled to be delivered within sixty (60) days of Buyer's written request. With respect to volume blanket purchase orders, the initial three (3) months of scheduled deliveries must be committed to (i.e., must be released) and are not subject to change. Subsequent shipment releases may require minimum release quantities and must allow a minimum of ninety (90) days for related deliveries to begin. Written requests for delivery schedule changes that are consistent with the above are subject to acceptance by Seller and may be subject to purchase price adjustments as determined by Seller. Should Seller incur additional costs because of the inability of Buyer to accept delivery of the Goods or to permit normal and unrestricted installation of goods, when such installation is required, Buyer promptly upon demand shall reimburse such additional cost to Seller.

(D) Once scheduled or released for shipment, Goods shall not be unscheduled or reclassified as unreleased. All Goods must be released by the Buyer to allow shipment by the contract's end date. Those Goods units not released as described will be considered cancelled and the terms of this section shall apply. In the event of failure of or delay in delivery or acceptance resulting from Force Majeure, the quantity provided for in the order may be reduced accordingly by written notice by either Party to the other.

6. Inspection and Rejection

Buyer will fully inspect all Standard and/or Custom Goods within thirty (30) days of delivery ("Inspection Period"). In the event that such inspection reveal any nonconformity, other than nonconformity caused after risk of loss passed to Buyer, Buyer shall notify Seller in writing as per Section 7 (Warranty). If Buyer fails to make any claim within such time, or uses the Goods, such failure or use shall constitute irrevocable acceptance of the Goods. In the event of nonconformity caused after risk of loss passed to Buyer, it shall be Buyer's responsibility to file any appropriate claims with the shipping carrier or Buyer's insurance.

In the special case of rejection of Standard Goods for convenience, such rejection shall be made in writing within thirty (30) days of shipment of the Standard Goods from Seller, shall be subject to the charges specified in Section 5 (Cancellations), and shall be returned to Seller as per Section 7(C) (Warranty). Returns for convenience of custom or customized

Goods are not allowed. In all cases, no Goods shall be returned to Seller by Buyer unless a Return Authorization Number is first requested in writing and Seller authorizes such return.

7. Warranty

(A) Seller warrants its Goods to be free from defects in materials and workmanship and to conform to Seller's standards or agreed-upon specifications, whichever are applicable for such Goods, for a period of one (1) year after delivery ("Delivery") to Buyer by Seller or an authorized reseller, provided that Buyer notifies Seller in writing of any such defects or nonconformity: (i) within the Inspection Period following delivery of Goods by Seller; or (ii) within thirty (30) days following first evidence of a latent defect that would not have been discoverable through due diligence and reasonable inspection appropriate for the type of Goods at issue, but in no event later than three (3) years after Delivery; whichever of (i) and (ii) occurs later ("Warranty"). The sole and exclusive obligation of Seller under this Warranty is limited, at Seller's option, to the replacement, repair or reworking of defective Goods, or the return of that portion of the purchase price applicable to defective Goods. The determination of whether a claimed defect or nonconformity is covered by this Warranty shall be at Seller's discretion, and such Buyer claims shall not be unreasonably denied by Seller.

(B) Seller makes NO WARRANTY with respect to any Goods that have damage, nonconformity, or failures occurring after passage of title to Buyer and resulting from: (1) abnormal conditions of temperature; abuse; accident; alteration; corrosion; dirt; disaster; improper handling, installation, maintenance, operation, storage, or testing; misuse; modification; moisture; neglect; or negligence; (2) modification or repair by anyone other than an authorized representative of Seller; (3) failure of Goods to meet Buyer-provided specifications where Seller previously indicated the Goods may not meet Buyer's specifications; or (4) ordinary wear and tear.

(C) Seller is not responsible for expenses incurred by Buyer to correct or repair any alleged defect unless pre-approved by Seller in writing.

(D) Buyer must inspect Goods within the Inspection Period. To return any Product, Buyer must obtain a Return Merchandise Authorization from Seller, which will expire after thirty (30) days. All Goods returned for warranty service must be returned in the original packaging and protected by an appropriate and adequate shipment carton. Buyer is responsible for risk of loss and all costs associated with the return of Goods to Seller. For returned Goods found to be conforming, Buyer is responsible for the costs of diagnosis and testing, and costs of shipping the conforming Goods back to Buyer. Seller will bear the cost of shipping new, repaired or reworked Goods to Buyer for the purpose of replacing Goods found to be defective or nonconforming (valid warranty claims).

(E) Seller's Warranty does not extend to materials or equipment purchased by it from other manufacturers and resold (either in its original form or as a component of the Goods) to Buyer, and Seller assigns to Buyer any transferable rights it may have arising from warranties given by any such manufacturer with respect to such materials or equipment.

(F) Seller makes no other express warranties, disclaims all other warranties, and disclaims implied warranties of any kind, including warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose or purposes intended by Buyer.

8. Limitation of Liability

The sole and exclusive remedies of Buyer for any claim or cause of action shall be those specifically set forth in Section 7 (Warranty). Seller's liability for any and all claims shall be limited to general money damages and shall not in the aggregate exceed the amounts paid by Buyer to Seller for the specific corresponding Goods involved.

Under no circumstances shall Seller be liable to Buyer or any third party for loss of business revenue, profit or any other economic loss, or any incidental, indirect, special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages. In the event that a jurisdiction does not allow exclusions or limitations of liability, Seller's liability will be limited to the greatest extent permitted by law in the subject jurisdiction.

Buyer agrees that, regardless of any claim it may have against Seller, including successful claims, Buyer will continue to pay all invoices and charges that may come due during the term of any applicable agreement until expiration or termination of such agreement according to its terms.

The limitations and exclusions provided in this section shall apply to all claims or causes of action individually and in the aggregate, whether for breach of warranty or for any other claim, whether asserted in contract or tort (including negligence, misrepresentation, and strict liability), and regardless of whether the Party has advised or has been advised of the possibility of any such loss or damage. Buyer waives any claim that these limitations or exclusions deprive Buyer of an adequate remedy.

9. Indemnification

Buyer acknowledges that Seller has no control over, and is not responsible for, the manner in which the Goods will be used by Buyer or third parties.

Buyer shall indemnify, hold harmless, and at Seller's request, defend Seller ("Indemnify" or "Indemnification") against: (a) any and all claims, counterclaims, suits, demands, actions, causes of action, damages, penalties, injuries, setoffs, liens, attachments, judgments, debts, costs, expenses, including third-party claims, attorneys' fees and litigation costs, or other liabilities of every character whatsoever (collectively, "Liabilities") arising out of or connected with, caused by, or resulting directly or indirectly from the use or operation of the Goods by Buyer or by third parties; and (b) Liabilities arising from claims of infringement of intellectual property or other IP claims relating to Goods developed pursuant to instructions, specifications, concepts, designs, build-to-print designs, technology or any intellectual property provided by Buyer, and relating to Custom Goods or other Goods developed for Buyer that are not Standard Goods or catalog items. If both Seller and Buyer are negligent or otherwise at fault, or both are strictly liable without fault, then the obligations of Indemnification under this section shall continue, but Buyer shall Indemnify Seller only for the portion of damage or injury attributable to Buyer, and Seller shall Indemnify Buyer only for the portion of damage or injury attributable to Seller.

10. Confidential Information

(a) Proprietary Information. In the absence of an effective and applicable nondisclosure agreement mutually signed by the Parties, a disclosing Party's ("Discloser") information disclosed to the receiving Party ("Recipient") shall be deemed confidential and proprietary information ("Proprietary Information") and protected against unauthorized disclosure and use for three (3) years: (i) if such information is in physical, human- or machine-readable form, and the information has been clearly marked or labeled by Discloser as "[Discloser Party name] Proprietary," "[Discloser Party name] Confidential," "[Discloser Party name] Private," or with words of similar meaning, or (ii) if such information is disclosed in a form not capable of bearing a label as provided above, is identified by Discloser as confidential at the time of disclosure, and is designated as confidential in a writing, delivered to Recipient within twenty (20) days of disclosure, describing the information sufficiently for identification and identifying the place and date of such disclosure and the names of each Party's representatives who disclosed and received such information.

(b) Order Is Confidential: Notwithstanding any other terms to the contrary, the terms of any order by a Party or agreement between the Parties shall be deemed Proprietary Information.

(c) Trade Secrets. Recipient's obligations regarding the Discloser's Proprietary Information, including obligations of nondisclosure and non-use, shall survive (i) provided that Discloser has labeled or identified in writing such Proprietary Information as a "trade secret" consistent with this section, and (ii) so long as such Proprietary Information remains legally protected or protectable as a trade secret under applicable law.

11. Nonpayment

(A) Seller shall have the right to immediately suspend performance by it or otherwise terminate all or any part of this order in the event Buyer fails to pay any amount to Seller when due.

(B) In the event of nonpayment, Seller may exercise all rights and remedies under applicable Uniform Commercial Code provisions, and any other rights and remedies to which it is entitled at law or equity. Buyer shall be liable to Seller for all costs of collection, including attorney's fees, costs of executing on any security interest that Seller may have in the Goods, and any reasonable expenses incurred by Seller as a result of Buyer's nonpayment. To the extent that any other terms herein conflict with the terms of this subsection, the terms of this subsection shall control to protect and benefit Seller to the maximum extent allowable.

(C) It is Seller's policy ("IP Policy") that it shall retain ownership of all of its Intellectual Property existing prior to, or developed by Seller in the course of, providing Goods and Services to Buyer, and any agreement between Buyer and Seller shall be construed so as to comply with this IP Policy unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by a corporate officer of Seller. In the exceptional case, if Seller were to agree to assign or transfer ownership of any IP to Buyer, such IP shall remain the sole and exclusive property of Seller until such time as all applicable invoices and fees have been paid.

12. Security Agreement

Buyer agrees that until Buyer has completed payment of the purchase price in full, plus accrued interest, if any, and has fully performed all other terms and conditions hereof: (1) Seller reserves, and Buyer grants to Seller, a continuing security interest in the Collateral pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code and any other applicable laws or regulations; (2) the security interest applies to those Goods that Buyer has accepted or of which Buyer or

Buyer's authorized agent or customer has taken possession, as described herein or in Related Agreement Documents, and also all proceeds of such Goods (collectively the "Collateral"); (3) Buyer pledges the Collateral and all of Buyer's rights in the Collateral to secure Buyer's debt and obligation to make payment in full; (4) by accepting or taking possession of the Goods, Buyer thereby confirms and authenticates this security agreement; (5) upon request, Buyer will promptly execute and deliver to Seller any instrument, financing statement, assignment or other writing or electronic communication needed to attach and perfect Seller's security interest in the Collateral, if any; (6) Buyer appoints Seller its attorney in fact, if needed, in order for Seller to execute any and all documents to protect Seller's security interest in the Collateral; and (7) Seller is hereby entitled to perfect its security interest in the Collateral, including preparing and filing financing statements and other documents, and to exercise any rights and remedies granted to secured parties under applicable laws or regulations.

13. Excusable Failure or Delay

Seller shall not be held responsible for failure of or delay in delivery of Goods scheduled to be delivered within the first sixty (60) days of Buyer's accepted written request. With respect to volume blanket purchase orders, the initial three (3) months of scheduled deliveries must be committed to (be released) and are not subject to change. Subsequent shipment releases may require minimum release quantities and must allow a minimum of ninety (90) days for related deliveries to begin. Written requests for delivery schedule changes that are consistent with the above are subject to acceptance by Seller and may be subject to purchase price adjustments as determined by Seller. Should Seller incur additional costs because of the inability of Buyer to accept delivery of the Goods or to permit normal and unrestricted installation of goods, when such installation is required, Buyer promptly upon demand shall reimburse such additional cost to Seller.

14. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

These Terms and Conditions, and any applicable purchase orders and agreements, shall be governed, construed and interpreted by, and in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, USA, without regard to any applicable choice-of-law or conflict-of-law rules. The Parties agree that jurisdiction and venue shall be proper in the state and federal courts in Monroe County and the city of Rochester in the State of New York, USA, and Buyer hereby accepts the pertinent secretary of state, or other applicable government authority that has authorized or regulates the Buyer's corporate formation or status, as agent for receiving service of process on behalf of Buyer. This Agreement excludes the application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods of 1980 (and any amendments or successors thereto).

The Parties shall endeavor to promptly settle any dispute that arises hereunder by direct negotiation between their managing directors or similar senior executives.

If direct negotiation fails to resolve the dispute, it shall be settled by final and binding arbitration conducted in English by a single arbitrator, who shall be a fully qualified lawyer. Arbitration of disputes involving purely U.S. domestic transactions or issues, or in which the Parties' principal places of business with respect to the dispute are located in the United States, shall be governed by rules of the American Arbitration Association; all other arbitration shall be governed by the International Arbitration Rules of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution. The Parties may undertake to carry out any arbitration award, without delay, under the terms of the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards of 1958 (the "New York Convention") or other applicable conventions or treaties. Arbitration proceedings will be confidential; no Party will publicize the nature of any dispute or the outcome of any arbitration proceeding except to the extent required by applicable law, provided in such case the Party required to make any disclosure informs the other Party of such requirement to allow the other Party to seek a protective order. The arbitrator will issue appropriate protective orders to safeguard each Party's confidential information disclosed in the arbitration.

15. Attorney's Fees

If it is necessary for Seller to obtain legal representation to enforce any part of these Terms and Conditions or applicable Related Agreement Documents, the non-prevailing Party agrees to bear the court costs and other tribunal or dispute resolution costs and reasonable attorney fees of the prevailing Party.

16. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other provisions of this Agreement will nonetheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic and legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner adverse to any Party. Upon such determination that any provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties will negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled.

17. Remedies

Except as expressly provided herein, the rights and remedies set forth herein are cumulative and in addition to any other rights or remedies that the Parties may have at law or in equity.

18. Non-Recurring Engineering; Custom Mold Tooling

(a) Custom mold tooling, other tooling, related physical components, manufacturing processes, know-how and other non-recurring engineering (individually and collectively "NRE") developed by Seller for the purpose of performing Buyer's order or any other agreement between Buyer and Seller are proprietary to Seller and shall be kept in the sole possession of Seller.

(b) Regarding Buyer-paid exclusive NRE: (i) such NRE shall be proprietary to Buyer, shall remain in the sole possession of Seller, and shall be used exclusively for Buyer, unless Buyer provides written approval to Seller to use the NRE for another purpose; (ii) Seller shall be responsible for all care and maintenance of such NRE while it is in Seller's possession or control; (iii) and Seller shall not relocate such NRE from Seller's designated facility without Buyer's prior written consent.

(c) Upon termination of applicable agreements relating to Buyer-paid exclusive NRE, Seller may destroy such NRE, or retain such NRE for possible use in a future agreement with Buyer, or, upon Buyer's written instruction, shall destroy such NRE and provide Buyer with written confirmation of such destruction.

19. Non-Solicitation

Neither Party will directly solicit to hire, employ, contract, or otherwise engage any employee, former employee, contractor or former contractor of the other Party, with whom their personnel have had contact in the course of performance of any agreement to which these Terms and Conditions apply, and for an additional period of twelve (12) months after the term of such agreement, without prior written consent of the other Party. This section shall not apply to non-solicited, non-recruited responses to general advertisements for employment.

20. Compliance: Export Control; Anti-Corruption; Conflict Minerals; Personal Data

(A) Buyer shall comply with all applicable Export Control Laws, Anti-Corruption Laws, Conflict Minerals Laws, and Personal Data Protection Laws, and Buyer shall not, by any act or failure to act, cause Seller to be liable under, or to be in jeopardy of liability under, such laws and regulations. Buyer shall indemnify, hold harmless, and at Seller's request, defend Seller against that portion of any and all claims, charges, penalties and any other liabilities whatsoever attributable to Buyer's breach of this section. Breach of this section shall constitute a material breach of these Terms and Conditions and any related agreements, and Seller shall be entitled to terminate any such agreement, at its discretion, upon written notice to Buyer without cost or liability to Seller.

(B) It shall be Buyer's responsibility to apply for and obtain any needed re-export licenses or other agency authorization required under Export Control Laws prior to exporting or re-exporting any Goods or effecting any deemed exports, if such licenses and authorizations have not already been obtained by Seller or cooperatively by Seller and Buyer together. Buyer and Seller shall cooperate fully with each other in providing any needed documentation or other reasonable assistance requested by the other Party for the purpose of obtaining such licenses or agency authorization.

(C) Buyer accepts and agrees to the terms of Seller's Anti-Corruption Policy (available on Seller's website, www.rpoptics.com, or upon request), hereby incorporated by reference as if set forth fully herein.

(D) If Buyer is to provide to Seller materials or goods pursuant to an agreement between Buyer and Seller, (i) such materials or goods shall be free of any known Conflict Minerals, and (ii) Buyer shall perform appropriate due diligence on its supply chain in order to ensure compliance with Conflict Minerals Laws.

21. Force Majeure

Neither Party shall be deemed in default or otherwise liable hereunder for any delay or failure of performance (other than payment obligations) resulting from Force Majeure, provided that the Party affected by Force Majeure cause gives written notice to the other Party within ten (10) days of learning of such cause.

22. Termination for Default; Change in Control

Seller may, by written notice, terminate an order or related agreement, or any portion thereof, for default without any liability or obligation whatsoever incurring against Seller for the portion terminated, in the following circumstances: (i) Buyer fails to perform any obligation hereunder; (ii) when Seller has reasonable grounds for insecurity regarding Buyer's performance, and Buyer fails to provide adequate assurances of performance within ten (10) days following Seller's demand or, (iii) should Buyer (a) become insolvent, (b) become unable to pay its debts as they mature, (c) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, (d) have a receiver appointed for the whole or any substantial part of its assets, or (e) become in any way the subject of a bankruptcy petition.

Each Party shall give the other Party reasonable advance notice of, but no less than thirty (30) days' notice of, any Change in Control of the first Party. Upon such notice, both Parties shall reasonably cooperate and assist the other Party with any such transition in good faith for the purpose of maintaining the validity and effectiveness of any related agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party shall retain the right to terminate any related agreement in the event that such Change in Control would create a conflict of interest or would conflict with that Party's business activities, policies, or strategy.

23. Survival

Provisions hereunder that by their terms, sense, or context are intended to survive expiration or termination, including but not limited to confidentiality obligations, shall survive these Terms and Conditions and any applicable agreement.

24. Relationship of the Parties

The relationship between the Parties will be that of independent contractors and not that of principal and agent, nor that of legal partners. Neither Party will represent itself as the agent or legal partner of the other Party nor perform any action that might result in other persons believing that it has any authority to bind or enter into commitments on behalf of the other.

25. Assignment

This Agreement is not assignable by any Party without prior written consent of the other Party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that a Party may, without consent, assign this Agreement as a result of a Change in Control, or to a parent, subsidiary or affiliate corporate entity as part of an internal company reorganization. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and will inure to the benefit of, the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

26. Order of Precedence; Prior Agreement Governs

(A) These Terms and Conditions shall govern the agreement between Buyer and Seller. In the event of differences or conflicts between these Terms and Conditions and any other applicable agreement documents, the order of precedence, in order of decreasing authority, shall be as follows:

- (i) Any written agreement terms signed by both Parties that expressly supersede the documents identified in this subsection 26(A);

(ii) Seller's Sales Order Acknowledgment, or any similar order acceptance terms provided by Seller to Buyer;

(iii) Seller's written quote provided to Buyer;

(iv) These Terms and Conditions;

(v) Any other written agreement terms executed by Buyer and Seller.

(B) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that Buyer and Seller have previously agreed, in a writing signed by both Parties, to terms or any other form of written agreement ("Prior Agreement"), and that Prior Agreement (a) expressly supplements or supersedes these Terms and Conditions, and (b) has not expired, and has not been expressly terminated or superseded, then, in the event of a conflict between the Prior Agreement and these Terms and Conditions, the Prior Agreement shall govern with respect to that conflict.

[End of Terms and Conditions.]
